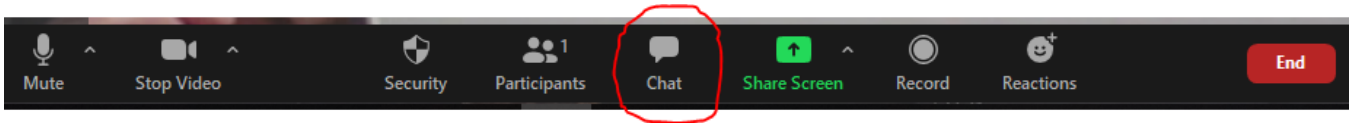
2) Public Comment Process/Rules:

a. Process: To announce your intention to speak during Call to the Public:

i. Select the Zoom Chat function (see picture below). NOTE: If you are on your smartphone, you may need to click the More button to access the Chat function.

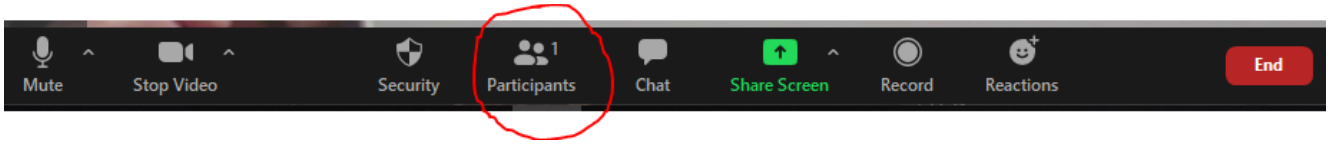


ii. Next to the "To:" select the option of sending a message to Tim Dowker, who maintains the list of participants and calls on them in order.

iii. Type your first and last name into the chat box and click enter.

iv. Make sure that your Zoom ID is set to show your first and last name as well. To do so:

1. Click on the "Participant" menu (see picture below) at the bottom of the screen.



2. A window will pop up with a list of participants (see picture below). If you hover over or click on your name, a More button like the blue one pictured below will appear. Click the More button, and you can select Rename, type your first and last name, and click enter.

b. Guidelines:

i. Any audience member may address the Board about topics on the agenda or not on the agenda.

ii. Each person shall be allowed to speak for a maximum of 3 minutes.

iii. Individuals addressing the Board should take into consideration the rules of common courtesy.

iv. Comments cannot be used to make personal attacks against Board members, District employees, or students.

v. Call to the Public is not a question and answer period.

vi. Board members may ask questions of the speaker, but are not obligated to answer questions or make statements or commitments in response to issues raised by the public.

vii. The Board President may refer questions/issues to the Superintendent for investigation, study, or recommendation. He may ask the Superintendent to address questions directly during the Superintendent's report.

3) Technology Helpline: If you are an individual with a disability who is in need of an auxiliary aid or service to participate in the meeting, please contact Mr. James Stauble, Technology Director, at 517.223.6021 for voice and TDD calls or at staublej@fowlervilleschools.org prior to the meeting.
