

The Fowlerville Community School District (District) is committed to allowing full access to educational and extracurricular programming and employment or growth opportunities to all individuals. No person shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program. The Board of Education has adopted a Discrimination and Harassment Policy which prohibits all forms of illegal harassment and discrimination within the District, including those described in Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972. Any person who believes that they have been the victim of discrimination should seek resolution through the procedures that have been established by the District. A person making a complaint should contact the District's Compliance Officer.

The District appoints the HR Director as the Fowlerville Community Schools Compliance Officer. It is that person's responsibility to ensure compliance with Federal and State regulations and that any inquiries or complaints are dealt with promptly in accordance with the law and school policy.

Contact information for the Compliance Officer is as follows:
